Gini Stout

Dear Gini,

I really appreciated very much being at R.H.S. with you. As a U.S. History, you were very enthusiastic. As a French student, I am sure you will always enjoy this sometimes queer and wild language called French. As a Secretary of the Student Congress, I wish a very satisfactory work. I hope very much to see you one time again. You really helped me very much in my introduction to R.H.S.

Good luck to you, be happy and remember me.

Sincerely yours.

Pierre-François Sterile-Dene,

and ^{will} continue to respect you for your unique personality - and your ability to fit in and not mind it. Keep yourself as together as you are and you have everything working for your success. I need our friendship and want it to grow. Take care of Doree as you have and continually become happiness, Judy Whisnant

Gini,
I've known you for a long time, had great times (at the beach)
and this thick and thin, you've been there. I value your friendship ship and I'll always remember you.
Good luck next year and always.
Love ya
Tommi Smith

Gini,
I hope you have good luck
in the future
Rocky

Gini,
You are really a great girl who's really a tough worker.
We've always had
our disagreements,
but you should know
that I really admire
you for all that you stand for. I wish you a lot of luck with S.C. and I know you'll help
it. Be good

Pat McElroy

Gini,
I give you a long way baby! One year and you're holding an ! Discretion! position, well
it couldn't happen to a nicer girl.
Have a good summer
and think of me.

Friends,
John Regan

One cup of bubbling enthusiasm, two cups of patience, three cups of understanding, a dash of humor, blended with a genuine interest in others are the ingredients that make up one of our favorite treats, Mrs. McKelvey. As a teacher, as an Annual Staff Advisor, as a Co-French Club Sponsor, and most of all as a friend, Mrs. McKelvey has gained our admiration and respect. We the class of 1972 wish to pay tribute to this exceptional woman by dedicating The Echo to Mrs. McKelvey.

There is a moment in reality,
life is still . . .

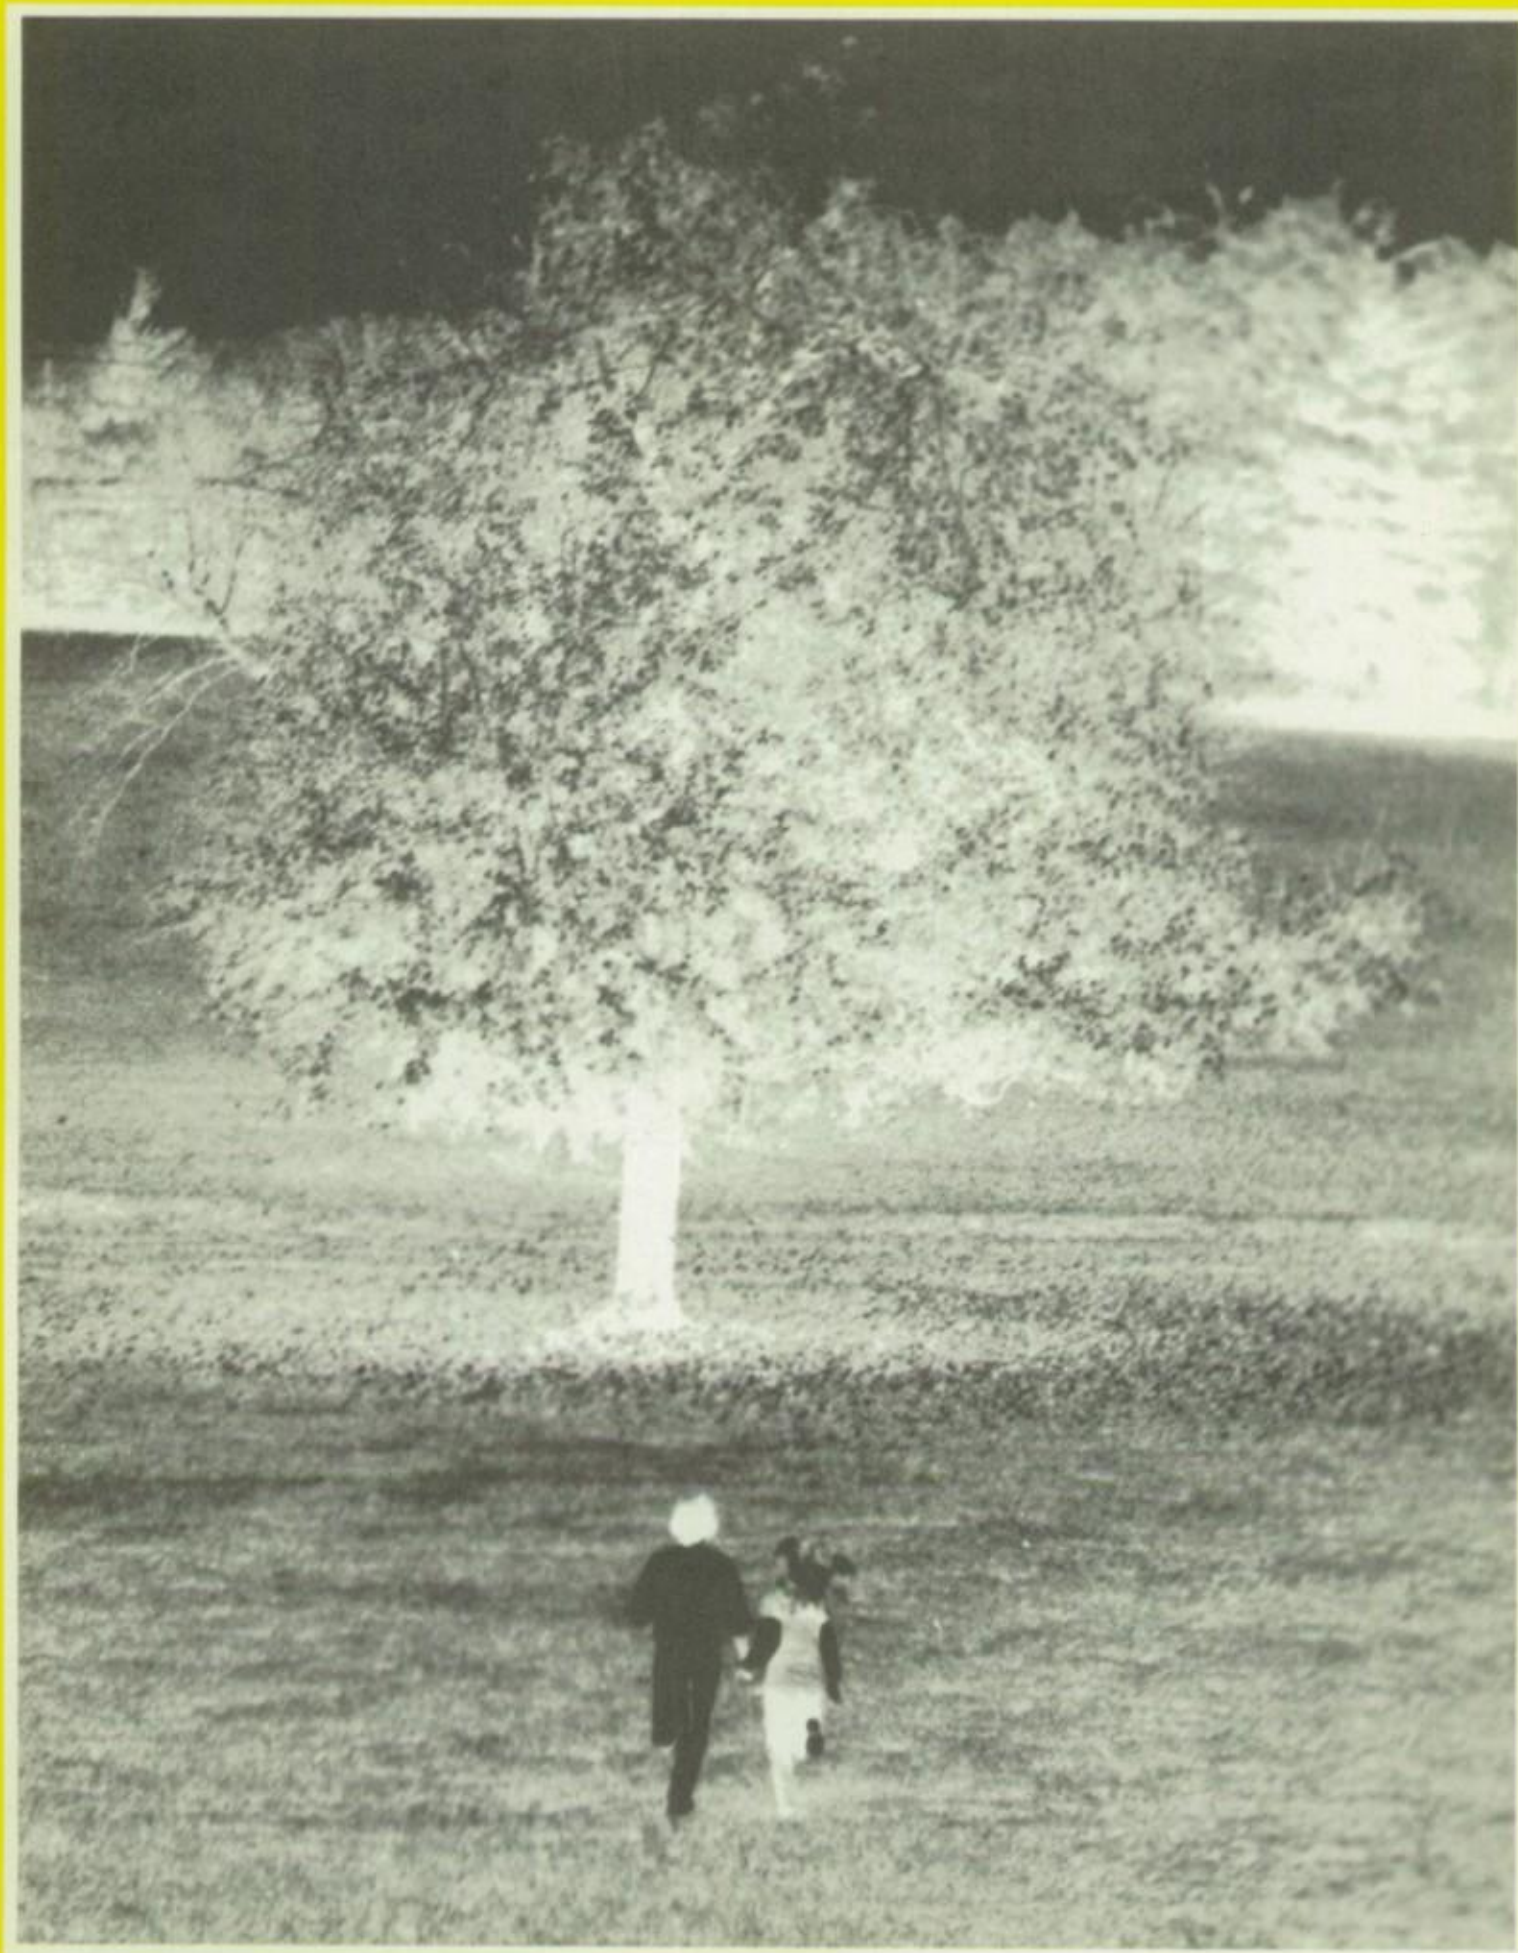

call it peace
or friendship of love
or timely consequence.

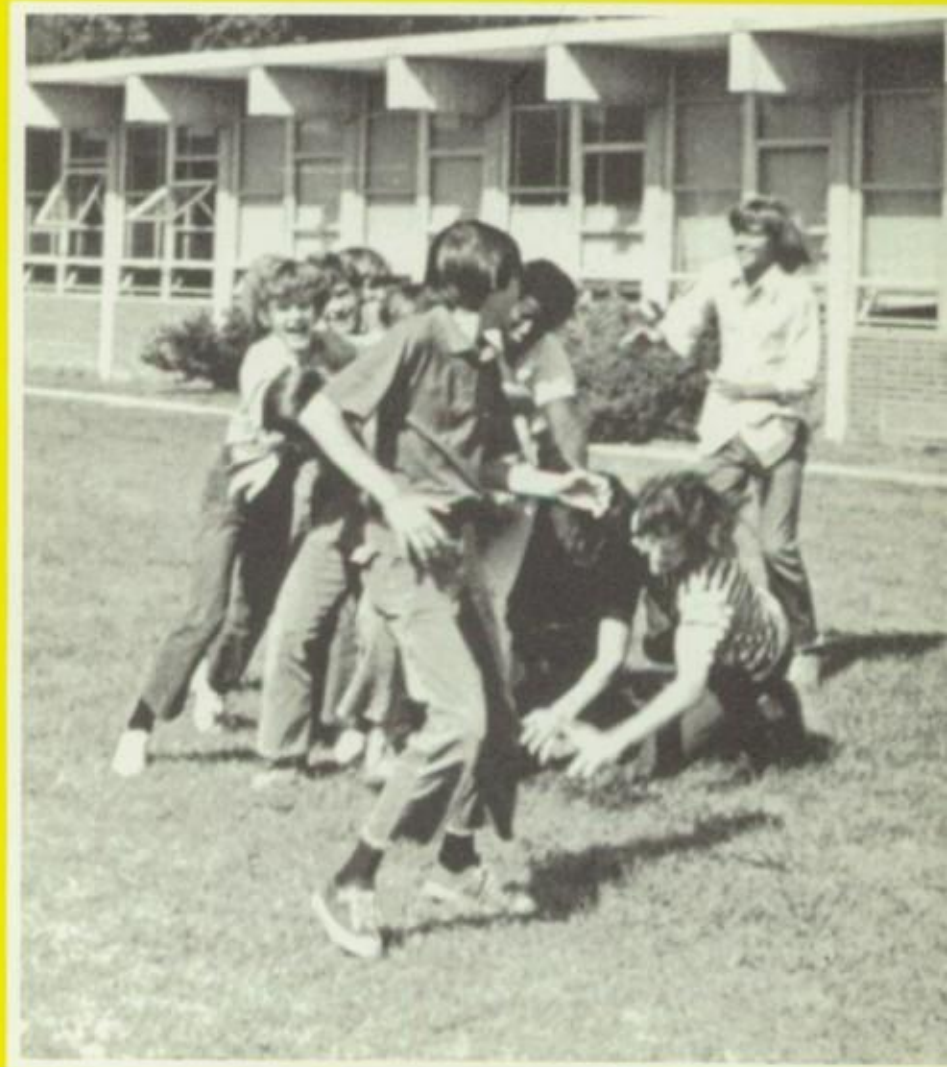

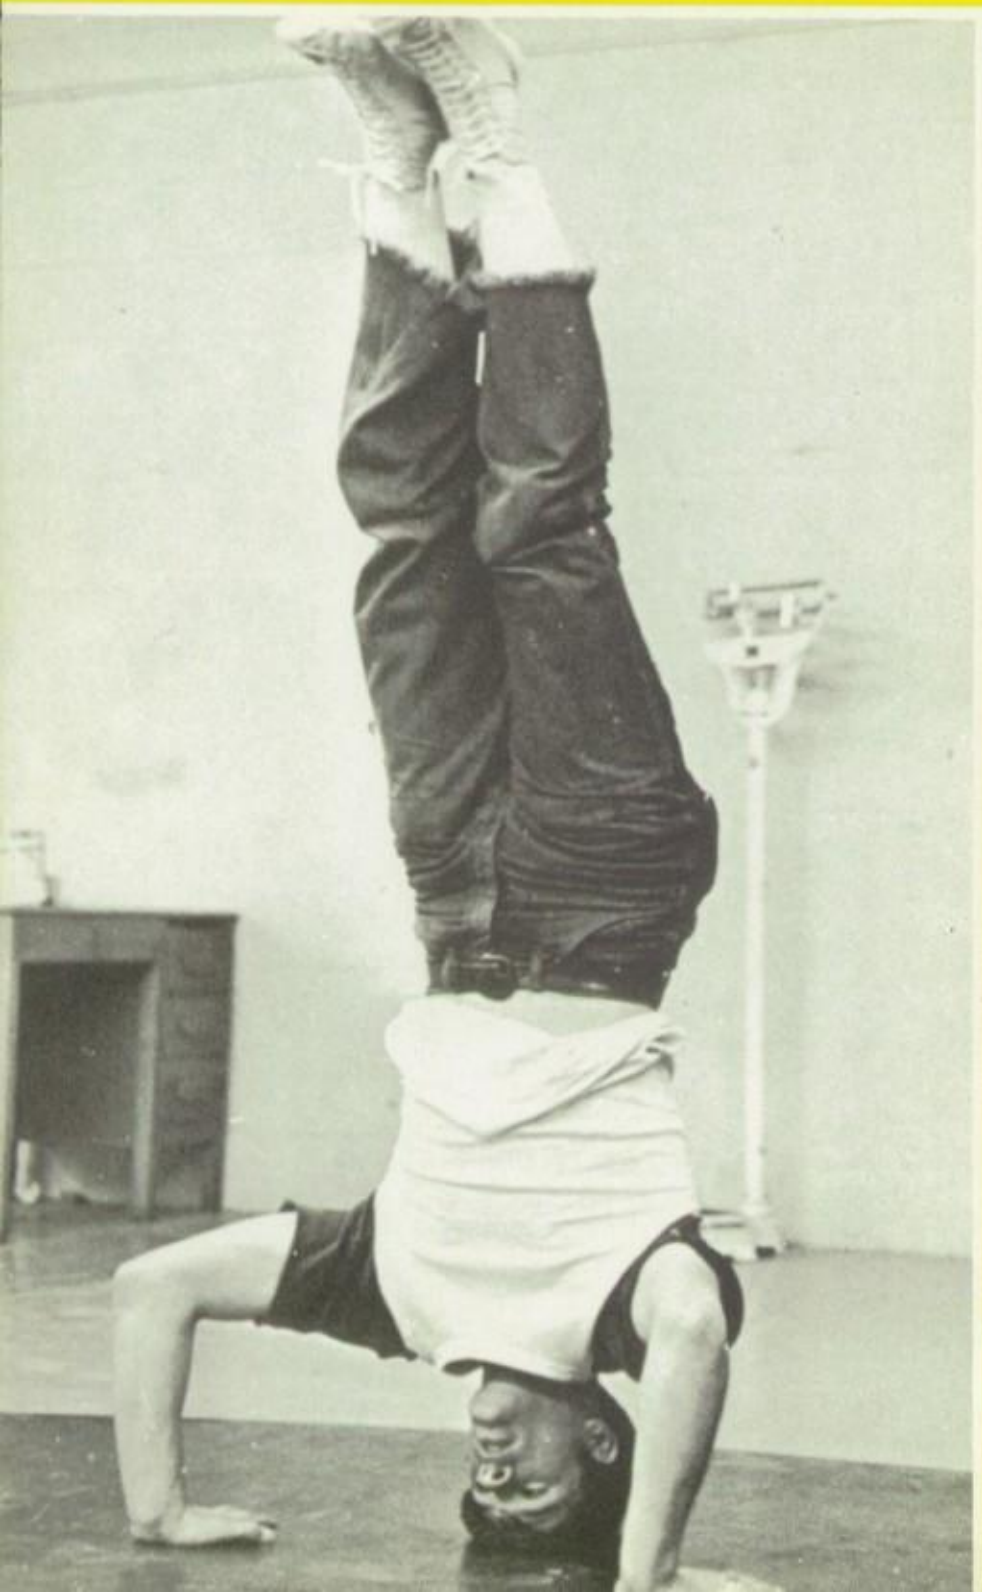

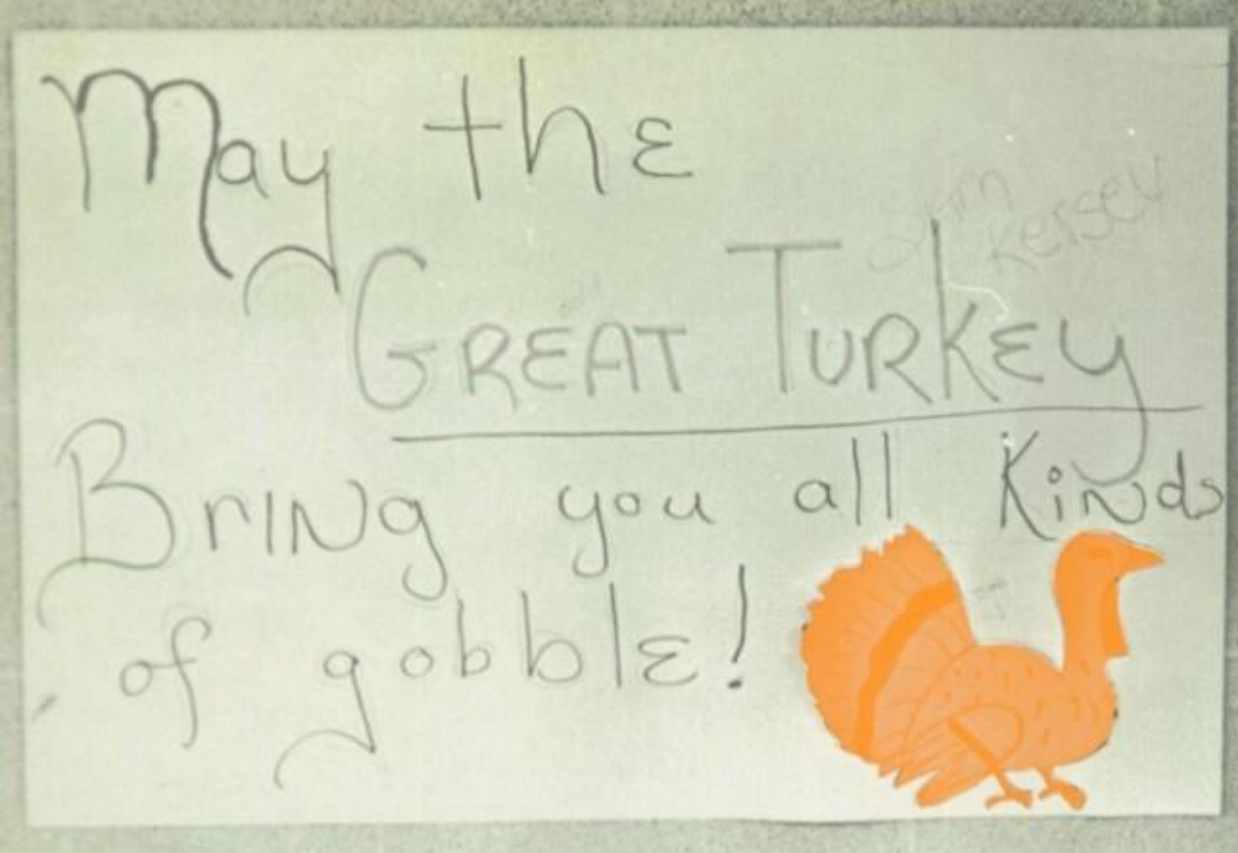

Fall, a new beginning . . .

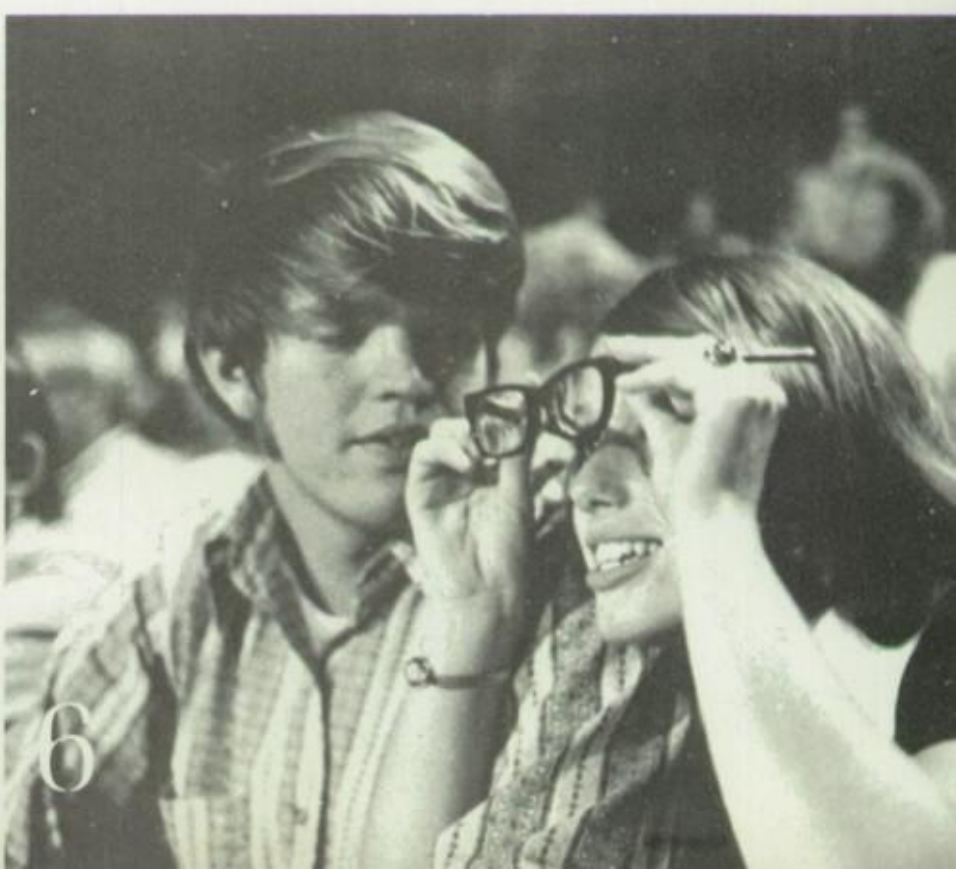

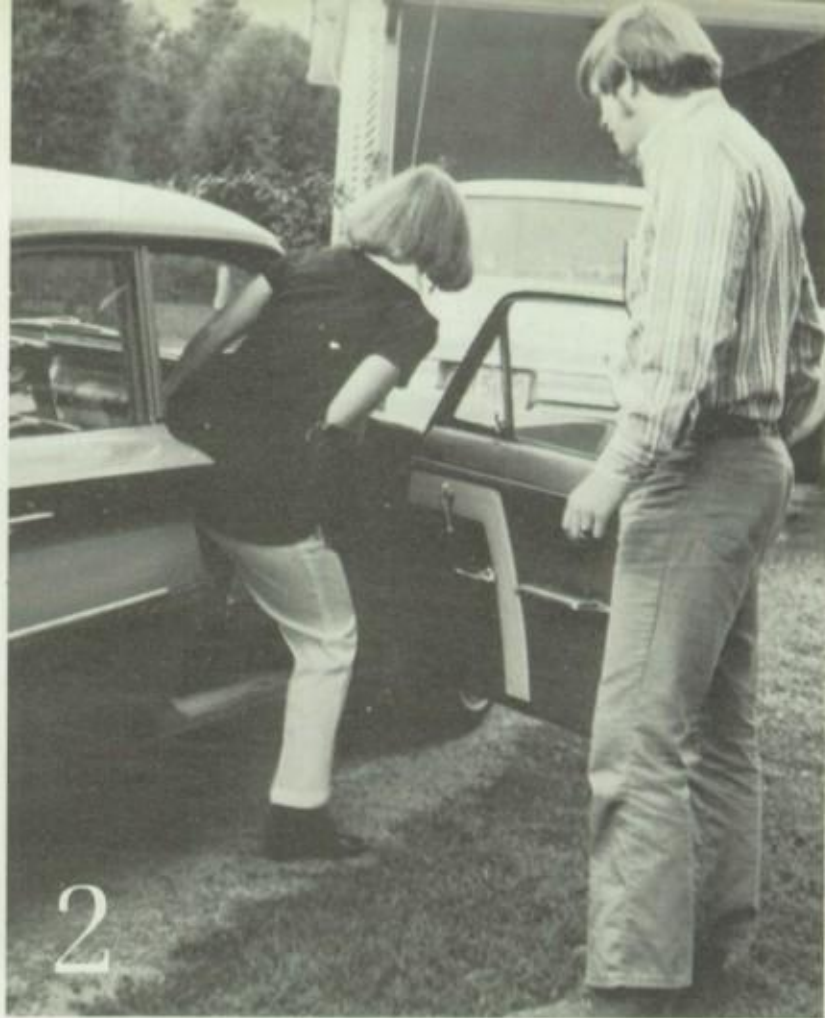

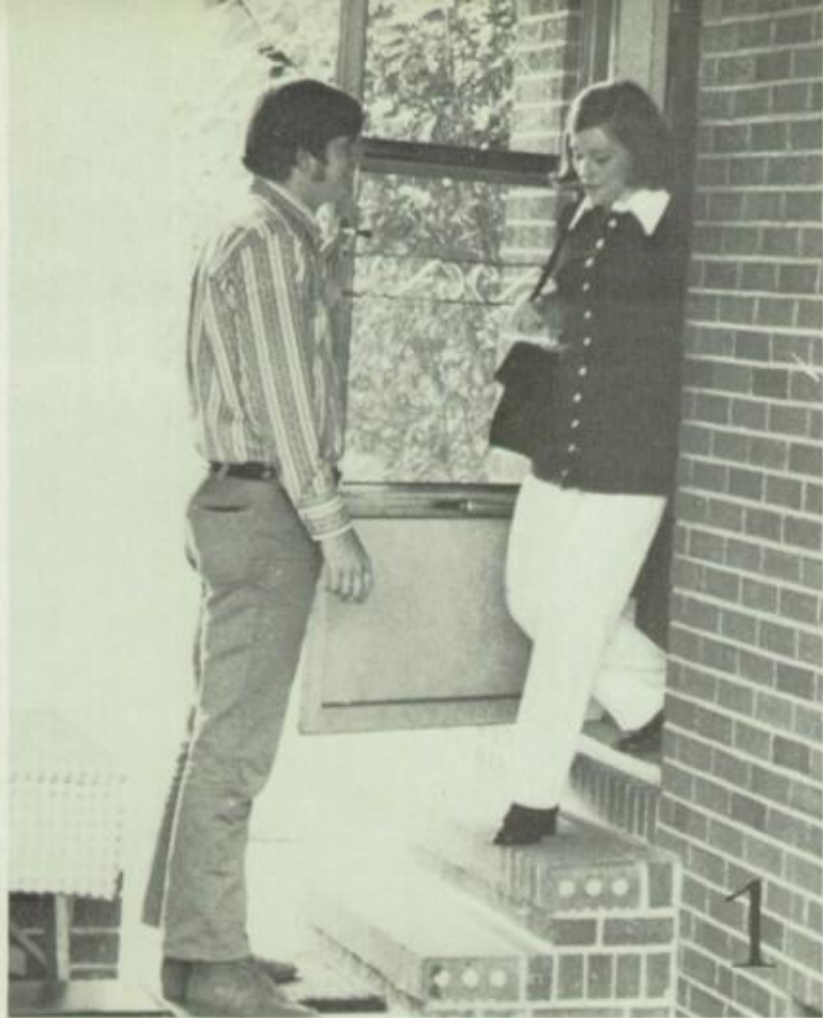

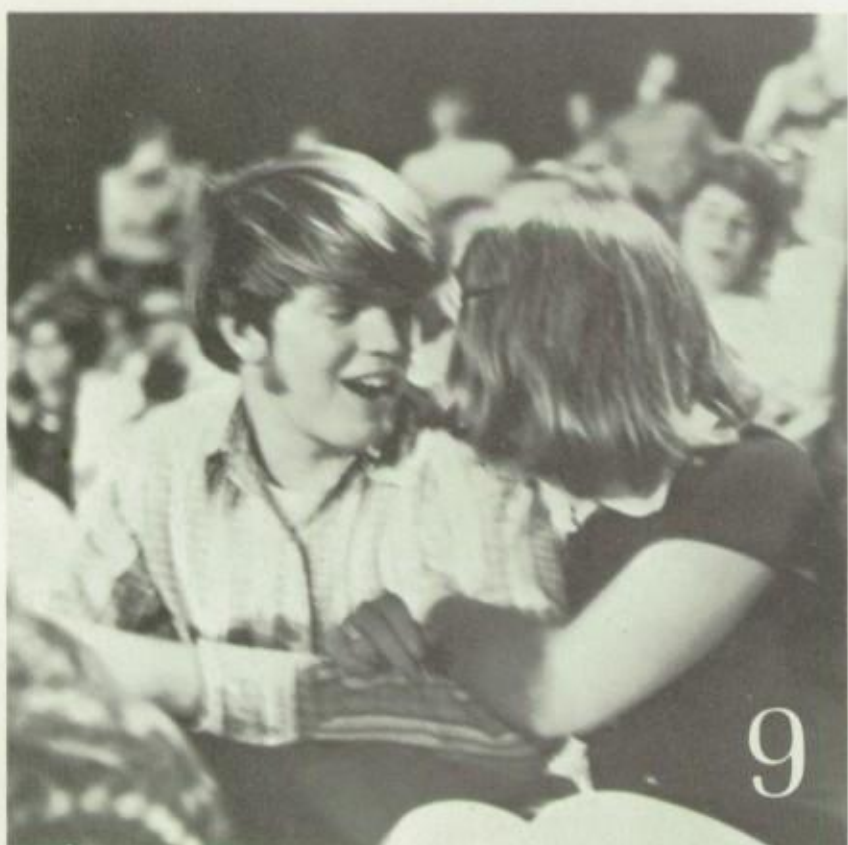

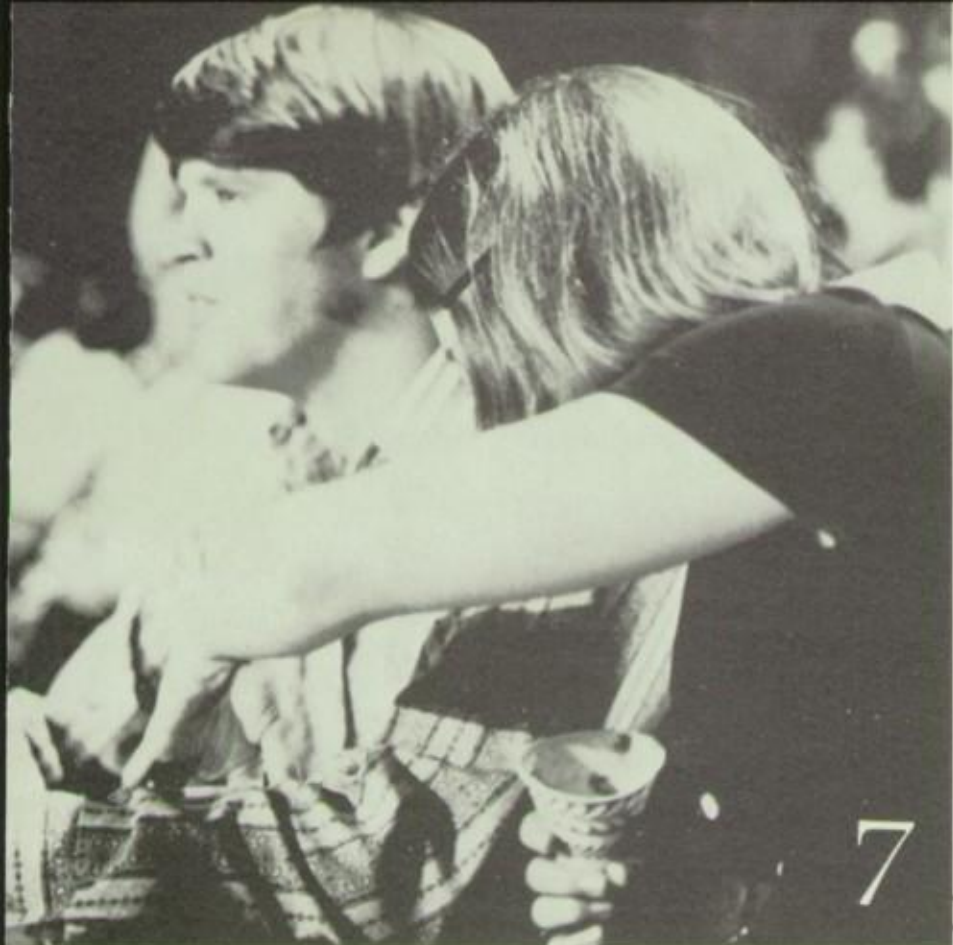

With the season
came golden days
of . . .

high spirits,
holidays,
football,
studies,
excitement
and homework.

A beautiful fall

day, October 8th, 1971.

FOOTBALL 1971

It was the same old story.

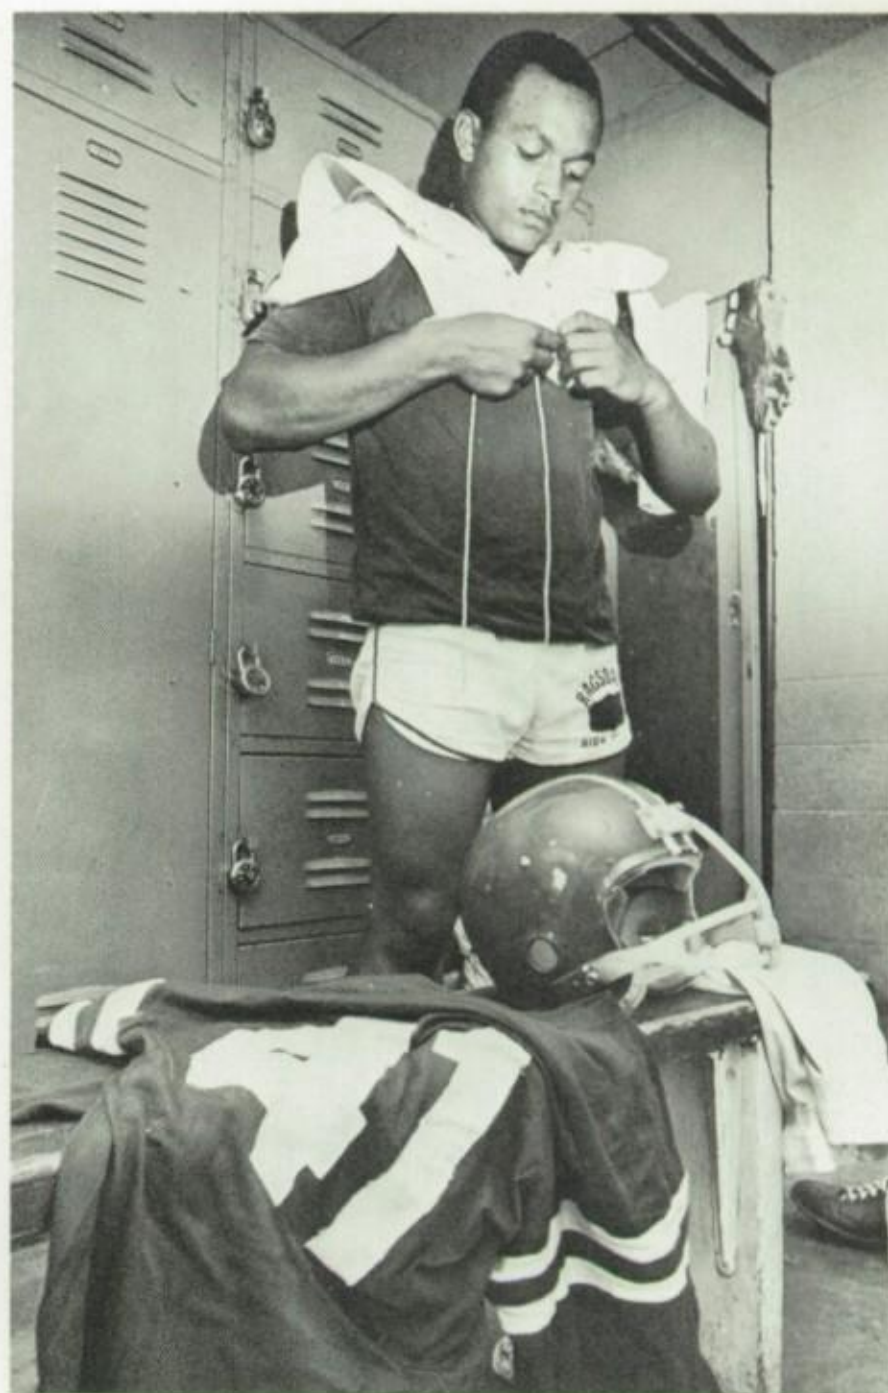

A 6-4 seasonal mark,
Three All-Conference players,
Too many close losses.

Early defeats at the hands of Eastern Alamance and Southeast Guilford cost the Tigers a shot at the Mid-State 3A Conference title.

RHS still had a chance when the Rams of NE Guilford invaded Tiger Territory for Homecoming: 1971. After 48 minutes of gridiron mayhem, the Rams left the embarrassed Tigers behind with a 21-0 shutout.

There were some bright spots, however. Junior running back Prince Deese will be back, as will a good deal of other players. Many seniors, also, performed with excellent ability.

Still, the Tigers mauled Allen Jay. That in itself takes away some of the pain. A 6-4 record is not that bad, anyhow.

Halfback Prince Deese suits up for another performance.

Jim Bolden takes off with an intercepted pass.

Action at home: Tigers vs. Allen Jay.

Sophomore monster man Matt Gloster takes a well-deserved break during a crucial contest.

Head Coach
Hugh Gordon looks
on as he explains
the situation to Jon Watkins. He retired following the close of this season
after seven years
as Tiger mentor.

Northwest Guilford's Mark Wilson, (20) is stacked up by Tigers Jim Bolden (5) and Lee Wilson (71). Brad Hoover (72) and Horace Gilmer (70) look on.

TOP ROW: Nixon Hodgin, Lee Larrimore, Mike Glover, Danny Snider, Kurtz Klinefelter, Phil McCrory, and Bill Saunders.

Senior quarterback Ronnie Smith (15) scampers around end, as halfback Charles Halipilias (22) closely trails the play at his heels.

J.V. Football Team Romps to 8-0

For the second consecutive year, the Ragsdale Junior Varsity Football squad has fought through an entire campaign and finished with an unblemished record. This season the JV's swept to eight straight victories, which included three shutouts and only 37 points allowed for the entire stretch.

As head coach, Mike Raybon had seen great success while working with this underclassman group. He had been able to mold in them the confidence of winners, along with the pride of true sportsmen.

Building athletes for future varsity teams is the prime target of the JV team. They enjoy great success on their level of competition. Should they continue to improve, there is little doubt that the varsity records will also see greater heights than previously encountered.

For any club that goes undefeated, congratulations are in order.

Sophomores

They entered in. Anticipating change, freedom and excitement. High School . . . a dream realized. Familiar faces fit warmly into the masses of people rushing through the halls. Rules and more rules. Teachers, clubs, activities, and high school life all was new. But excitement died as teachers with great expectations began the new courses . . . required P.E. . . . dressing out, smelly locker rooms . . . just part of it. Football games brought about enthusiasm . . . new sophomores had found their way to the attendance office. They knew how to make it.

Mid-term exams start, the pressure of being a beginner grew again. They sweated it out, at least most of them.

During those two hour intervals, they tasted the misery of exams . . . but when they were over, routine continued and life was the same. It was all just happening now . . . and they weren't different anymore . . . just part of it. Part of the school, part of the dreams, part of the excitement of high school living.

What happened to . . .
 the Christmas Dance that never was,
 the white Christmas
 that we all dreamed of,
 and our New Year's resolutions of
 A+ exams?

We soon forgot as the winter months passed slowly on.

Winter and the peace it brings reminds us

of friendships and the warmth it sings.

Winter . . . our season for snow, gifts to the needy, and contagious excitement!

BASKETBALL

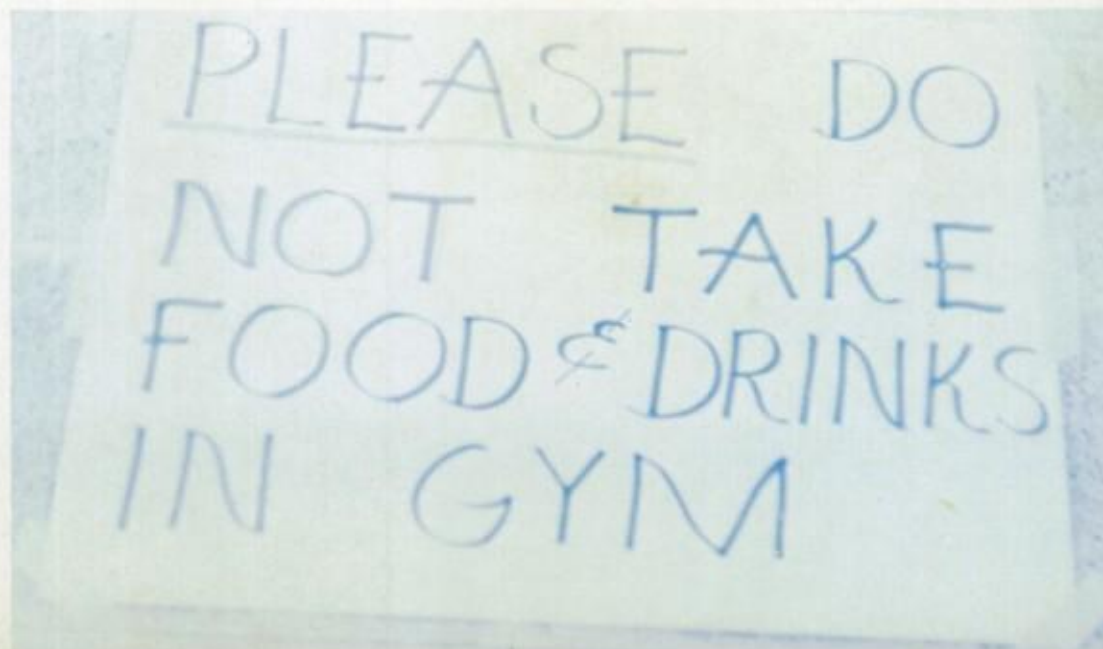

1971-72

Shorty Rickman appeared as a sophomore to add excitement to a new and different Tiger attack.

A new coach took the reins of RHS this season. Larry Dunn had to solve a key Tiger problem: inconsistency.

Rules are always made to be broken; thus, the faculty found it hard to enforce the 'smuggling' law.

Mike Glover started his third season at guard. He turned in many excellent performances for Ragsdale.

Moving in at one forward position, Willie Morgan shared the playing time in the front court.

Filling up the other guard spot in Dunn's three-guard offense was sharpshooting junior Terry Dawson.

Dejection and gloom fill Terry Hill's face. Maybe it is not that RHS is behind, but that the coach has his hands full as seen at the right hand corner.

As has been a precedent in the past, the Tigers stumbled into a "Comedy of Errors" too many times (above).

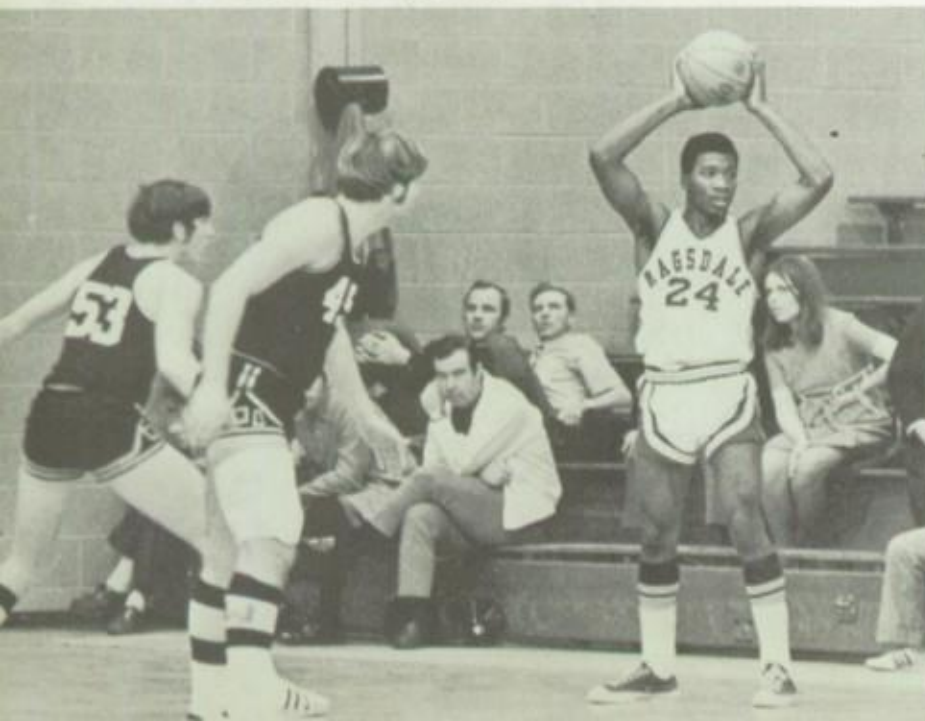

STANDING: Coach Larry Dunn, Jody Tester, Tony Dawson, Willie Morgan, Mike Vaughn, Bill Saunders, Bill Wall, Ricky Rickman, and Patrick Klem. KNEELING: Kurtz Klinefelter, Mike Glover, Shorty Rickman, Terry Dawson, and Donnie Camp.

Action begins . . . a game is under way.

Donnie Camp prepares to fire the ball.

Ricky Rickman shoots over an opponent.

Bill Saunders and Terry Dawson set up the defense.

Shorty Rickman flips the ball inside.

Terry Dawson leaps and fires as Kurtz Klinefelter moves in.

THOSE "MINOR SPORTS" PLAYED AT RAGSDALE DURING WINTER JUST KEEP PRODUCING WINNERS

Whether by a pin, in wrestling or by 43 points in girls' basketball,

in girls' basketball

THEY JUST KEEP ON WINNING

minor sports (mī nēr spōrts), n. 1. a sport not given high newspaper coverage 2. one where spectators do not flock in overwhelming numbers until a state or district championship is at stake.

No less than 50 people participate within the gates of the Winter Sports Palace. Only ten are in the "major" tower.

The multitude of fans fills the gym to its capacity.

Just how "minor" is a minor sport?

At Ragsdale the problem is two-fold: the "minor" sports produce winners but are losers in another sense since they don't have the enthusiasm of home supporters. Even though no one purposely labels a sport "major" or "minor" the choice seems apparent. A "major" sport is determined only by spectators, not by coaches or participants. At Ragsdale the so-called minor sports are winners in technicality, but losers in reality.

TIGERETTES

Dawn Allred attempts to defend against a Northwest shot.

WRESTLING 1971-1972

From heads to tails. Ragsdale was king again.

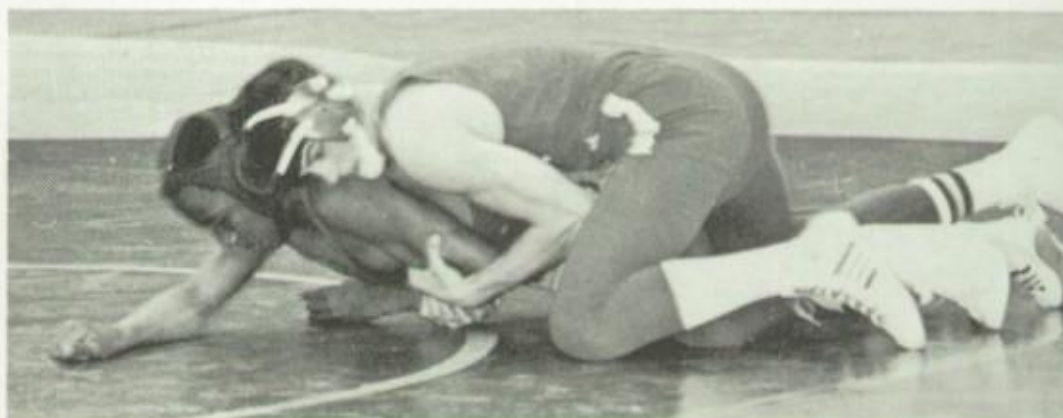

The signal is for another win by Eugene Cason.

Lorenzo Chapman romps to one of his many easy wins en route to defense of his conference title.

Jeff Curtis shows the style that made him a champion as a sophomore.

Congratulations are in order for a winning grappler following the close of the match.

Martin Morgan is victorious again!

Juniors . . .

Back again . . . smiling, laughing with old friends and new acquaintances. Not new, not old . . . just right . . . Many juniors came back with hopes of making this year as good or better than the last, and their concern and involvement grew. School spirit grew. The first pep rally was a big success and Ragsdale beat Allen Jay. Winter came and SAT tests excited some and depressed some. Everyone got used to Haney and dug deep into their U.S. History books. Class rings were ordered and some boys didn't keep theirs long. But term papers deadened the enthusiasm. Basketball season was exciting as the junior players did well for the varsity team. Dunn broke them in for '73. And as Senior graduation neared, the juniors began to realize that their day was not so far away.

TIGERS SHOOT FOR TOP IN TRACK

This year the Flying Tigers Track team will be going for a good season with many returning starters. Coach Jerry Haney will be looking to these returnees to carry the load in the Mid-State 3A loop. Minus the services of Anthony Adams, the Tigers will be pressed to find another superstar. There is only hope that one will arrive.

Bob Woodside exerts the effort needed for a winning hurdling performance.

Hitting the take-off board with precision timing is Danny Collins in the long jump.

TOP ROW: Sherry Ingram, Melinda Cathey, Chris Kosinski, June Biggerstaff, Gwen Williams, Jayn Cox, and Jo Ralston. BOTTOM: Karen Grav, Vanessa Hairston, Terri Elder, Sandy Sikes, and Missy Zirkel.

Jayn Cox races to the tape to win.

A new dimension has arrived.

The 1971 baseball team at RHS erased from memory the terrible thoughts that lingered from years past. The Tigers ground out a 10-7 record with four of the seven defeats coming by margins of two runs or less.

While being held scoreless by foes one time, Tiger hurlers compensated with four no-run games. At one point late in the season, RHS ran up a five-game winning streak. They finished winning seven of their last nine ball games.

A new dimension looks good . . . extremely good.

Ricky Rickman shows the style that produced a high batting average to lead the team.

Ace southpaw Randall Watts displays his potent delivery.

Whipping the ball to first to get the assist is third baseman Billy Davis.

Jim Bolding hurls the ball toward the infield to hold the runner.

From a shallow position in the outfield, Ronnie Smith zings the ball.

"Something went wrong" . . . Jim Bolden groans on the ground as Mike Cleveland rushes over to see what has happened.

(Below) Rodney Trivette fires the ball in.

THE ENDEAVORS OF MANY PUT RAGSDALE IN THE PUBLIC EYE

Proudly posting press announcements of Ragsdale's State Wrestling Championship is our beaming Coach Mike Raybon.

The efforts of many people have made Ragsdale a respected name among her peers. The result of many extra hours of work and sacrifice, the honors are many. The debators led the way in many tournaments, and the D.E. students took many honors in district competition. The quiet successes in J.V. Football, J.V. Basketball, and all the girls' sports only add to the stature of the school's image.

June Biggerstaff and Linda Childress, as chief and co-chief cheerleaders, encouraged the students to join in enthusiastic support of the athletic program.

The Booster's Club, led by many devoted and hard-working parents, contributed universal gym equipment to help complete athletic facilities the school can offer.

The annual staff is very grateful to Ronnie Barker, Ken Heybrock, Brady Murray, Grant Thorn, and Bobby Winslow for their photography included in this yearbook. Linda Murdock has composed much of the lovely copy used. The patience and cooperation of the faculty made publication deadlines much easier to meet.

The school was fortunate to have Pierre François Stoerklé from Switzerland to become its friend.

Yet tops on the list of people who promote Ragsdale must be Mr. T. G. Madison, whose constant efforts for the individual student have kept problems to a minimum and successes to a peak.

Sean O'Kane, pictured on the right above, became King of the Mardi-Gras, which was sponsored by all county French Clubs; then they led the gala costume parade through the halls.

With her helpful and friendly manner in the front office, Mrs. Audrey Wrike has become Ragsdale's best public relations worker.

Many Individuals Contribute

The accomplishments of a team or group are successful if a caring person is in charge.

A tedious and often unrewarding job is that of daily preparing nutritious food that meets federal requirements. Under the capable and dedicated efforts of Mrs. Margaret Woody, the cafeteria staff was able to offer a cold plate as a second choice on the menu this year.

School could not be run efficiently without valuable school workers, whose assistance makes attendance and guidance work accurate and less taxing for faculty members. Led by Mr. Tom Payne and Mr. James Kenan, the faithful workers carefully record absences with their codes and deliver daily absentee lists to teachers.

The job of counselling and

Bow Sandford

record-keeping for each student in school is done by the counselors with the help of guidance workers who run errands and perform many other duties.

Keeping the building as clean as possible is an endless and repetitious job, but the Sandford family works daily. Ricky Cheek and Curtis McClendon work every afternoon also.

Mrs. Olin Jackson

Mr. Larry Klosterman

Mr. Alan Dick

Superb Efforts In Ragsdale's Behalf

Going beyond the call of duty to help with sports events were many dedicated workers. During football season, Mr. Moran broadcasted games; Mr. Kenan tallied the scores; Mr. Stancil, Mr. Chance, Mr. Bailey, and Mr. Waggoner kept the gates. For use in analyzing plays, Mr. Klosterman took movies during football and later during basketball season. Called the best scout in the area, Mr. Haney visited opponent games.

Faithfully attending two games a week during basketball season, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Jackson and Mrs. Kathy Dick kept varsity scores; Linda Bel-lows kept the girls' basketball scores.

Mr. Alan Dick was the official statistics-keeper.

Wrestling was helped by Mr. Haney and various junior varsity wrestlers.

New this year in the capacity of Administrative Assistant, Mr. Mills inherited Mr. Moran's job of handling the buses and their problems.

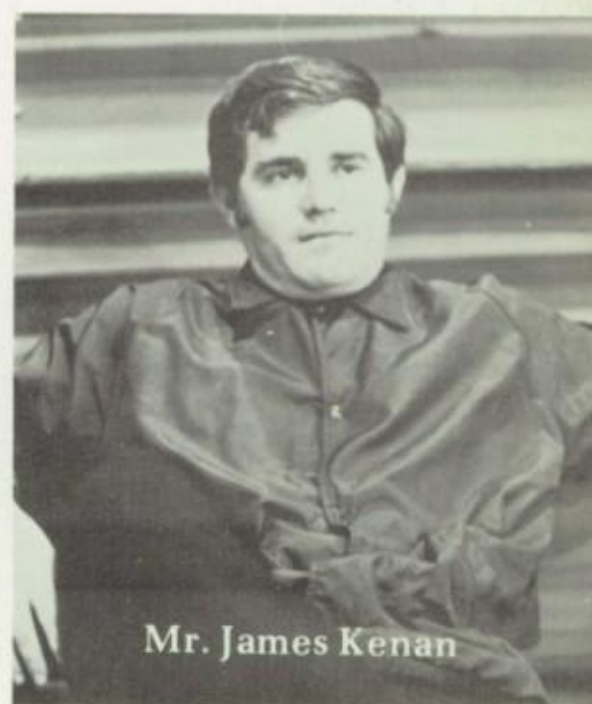

Taking on special duties because they wanted Ragsdale to be a better school were many time-sacrificing teachers. Miss Boone handled all audio-visual equipment for the classrooms and stage. Checking hall passes were many of the men on the faculty who were assigned to hall duty.

Students also helped in too many capacities to enumerate. The parking lot committee contributed an hour daily to checking violators. The prom, homecoming, talent show, assembly, and school spirit committees are only a few of the many student groups who worked constantly to improve school life.

Students Prepare Now

Each year boys from Ragsdale go to Wake Forest for a week of instruction in North Carolina's governmental activities. There they set up their own state, electing a governor, lieutenant governor, and other state officials. This year's attendants to Boys' State were, left to right, Ronny Woody, John Ellis, and David Collins.

Two girls from the school spend a week in the summer at UNC-G. Meeting with girls from all over the state, they learn the functions of different levels in North Carolina government. Laine Wrike and Debbie Hampton attended Girls' State during the summer of 1971.

Governor's School is located at Salem College where it provides its campus for 400 talented and gifted students. These students are guests of the state for 7 weeks as they study the different aspects of 20th century thoughts and ideas. Nominated this year are Mary Kozanosky, Sandra Gaston, Carol Marion, Gini Stout, Paul Newby, Deatra Hege, and Brian Sartori.

For Successful Futures

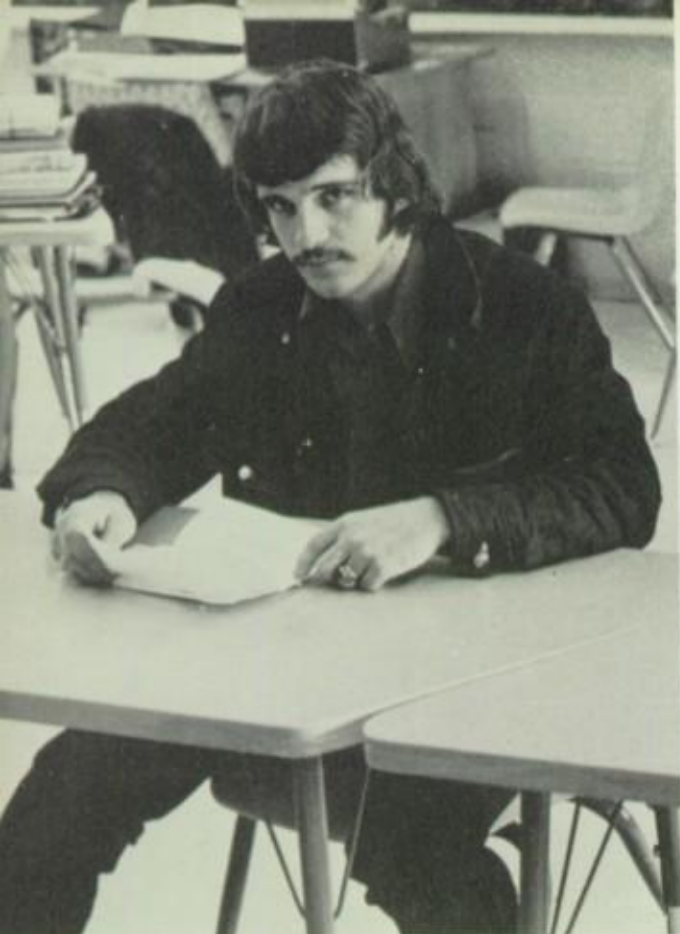

Gorden Widenhouse, Pam Winslow, Loren Hill, Susan Bass, and Martin Eakes participated with college students in classes at the Tri-College Consortium for High School Summer Scholars at Greensboro College during the summer.

Martin Eakes, Loren Hill, Tom Fawcett, and David Collins went with Miss Boone to the Science Symposium at Duke University to attend lectures and demonstrations in the field of natural science.

Loren Hill and Carian Barber each spent a week in Washington, D.C. at the Presidential Classroom learning more about the workings of our government.

Jay Keeter

District winners of the Distributive Education Student-of-the-Year contest are Andrea Weaver and Jay Keeter. They received the award by competing against students from 28 schools in the 5-B district.

David Washam, (right) the National Merit Scholarship Finalist, is one who is ranked in the upper tenth of one per cent, based on test scores.

Valedictorian

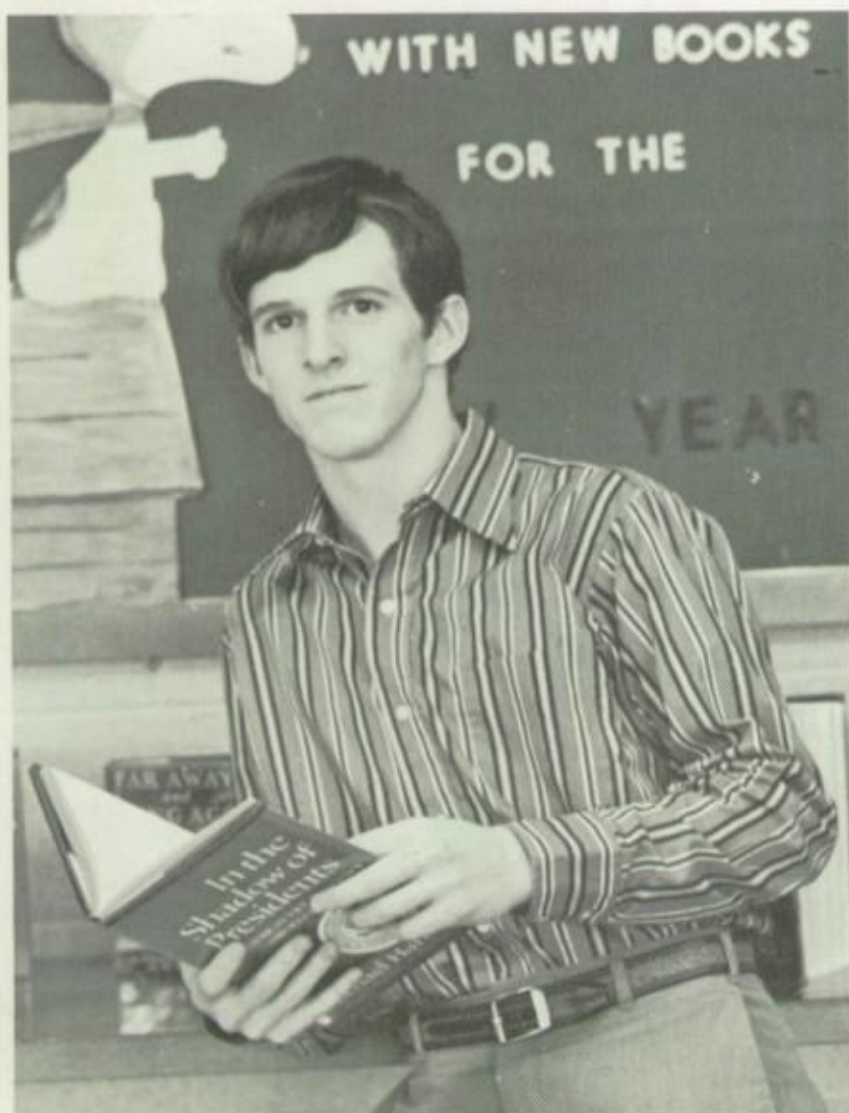

Martin Daniel Eakes, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Eakes, ranks first in the 1971-72 graduating class. Not only superior in scholastic ability, Martin has also proved himself a leader in many extra-curricular activities. Martin worked diligently to write a school constitution and aids the effectiveness of Student Congress with his enthusiasm for student involvement. Having red hair and a temper to match, coupled with an intense dislike of mediocrity make him try constantly to improve his surroundings and himself. Martin is a model student who excels in every endeavor, and who pursues his ideas to the fullest. The future will definitely be richer for the contributions of this Ragsdale scholar!

Salutatorian

Ginger Loraine Marr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Marr, transferred to Ragsdale the beginning of her junior year. While being an active participant of the total school program, she has earned the second highest average in her graduating class. For her high average and other fine qualities, she was selected for membership in Beta Club and National Honor Society. For outstanding citizenship she was chosen DAR Good Citizen for this year. Her musical training and ability qualified her for attendance at the Governor's School during the summer of 1971. Ginger is a true lady, possessing maturity, sincerity, and capability.

Seniors Prepare For That Final Walk Down The Aisle

As seniors order invitations, they bear in mind "An invitation sent often brings a gift in return".

The "big heads" were readily discovered when they were measured for caps.

Worried seniors schedule last minute conferences with teachers concerning their grades.

Lisa Vitello won the hearts of all and the title of the senior mascot when she did a spirited cheer in the mascot contest.

Mrs. Davis and the senior class officers find much work to keep them busy as the end of the year approaches.

Tim Drew, alias Chubby Checker, twisted his way into becoming the mascot for the senior class.

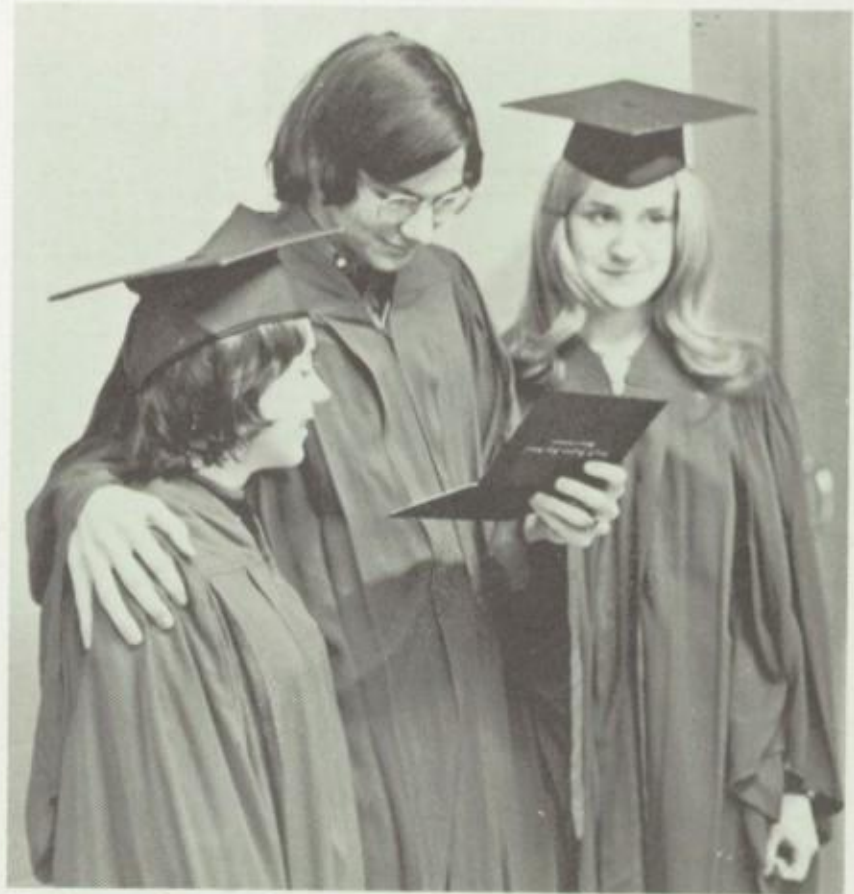

Randall Watts explains the graduation procedure to an underclassman.

Mr. Kenan helps a nervous senior adjust her cap.

Mr. Madison presents a diploma to a senior who will not be forgotten.

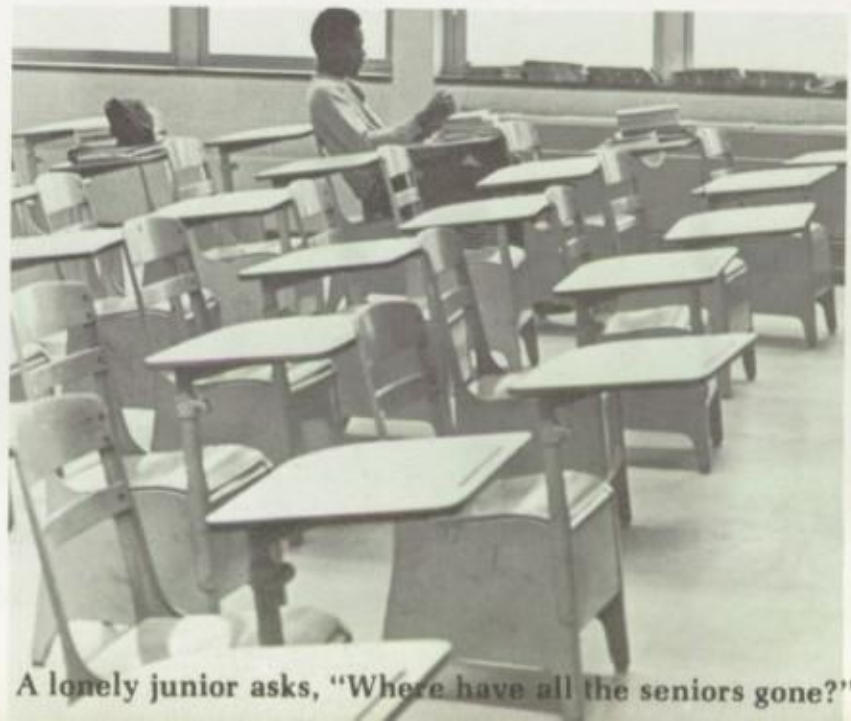

Seniors admire their receipts for twelve years of hard work.

Cases are packed and seniors make a mad dash for the beach.

A lonely junior asks, "Where have all the seniors gone?"

Merit Individual Awards

Marsha Skeen, an outstanding business student at Ragsdale, has won the High Point Legal Secretary Association's Scholarship.

Because of her academic promise, her qualities of citizenship, her concern for others, her character, her personality, Nancy Gregory was declared winner of the Sedgefield Women's Club Scholarship.

Winner of one of the Spencer Love Scholarships in the Fine Arts, which are awarded to four UNC-G incoming freshmen, is Ginger Marr, an excellent student of music.

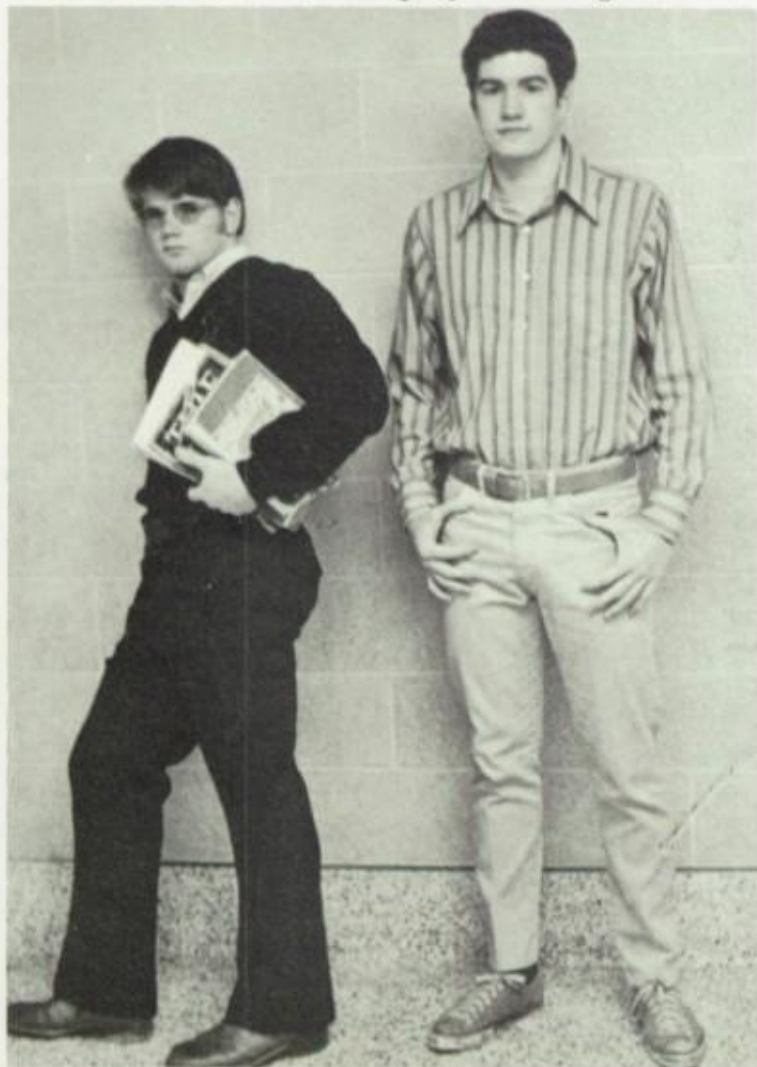

In recognition of outstanding achievements both in the classroom and in endeavors outside academics, the Beta Club Scholarship, awarded for the first time this year, goes to Keith Wiglesworth.

The Civitan Award, given by the Jamestown Civitan Club to the person the class voted the best citizen among them, is presented to Carian Barber.

Winners in competition for the John Motley Morehead Scholarship to UNC were Randy Sechrest and Bill Saunders. An all-expense paid scholarship, it is awarded only to those who meet high requirements in areas of leadership, academics, moral character, and physical vigor.

The Most Valuable Senior Award is given by the class for the one considered most outstanding in leadership, character, and contributions to the school. The worthy recipient this year is Bill Saunders.

Ragsdale honored with two Morehead winners

Randy Sechrest, Jan Disque, Linda Childress, and Bill Saunders, because of their all-around qualities of good citizenship, personality, and academic performance, were chosen to receive the Outstanding Teenager Award.

SENIORS . . .

At last . . . we finally made it. Pride conquered the Senior Hall as the Senior class members moved into their lockers. Most faces were familiar and some new but everyone was friendly. The work was hard and Homecoming was welcome. The Seniors' float won for the first time in five years . . . the class was proud. In December, college boards were dreaded. Applications were sent to colleges and students waited with anticipation. Some were happy . . . some disappointed . . .

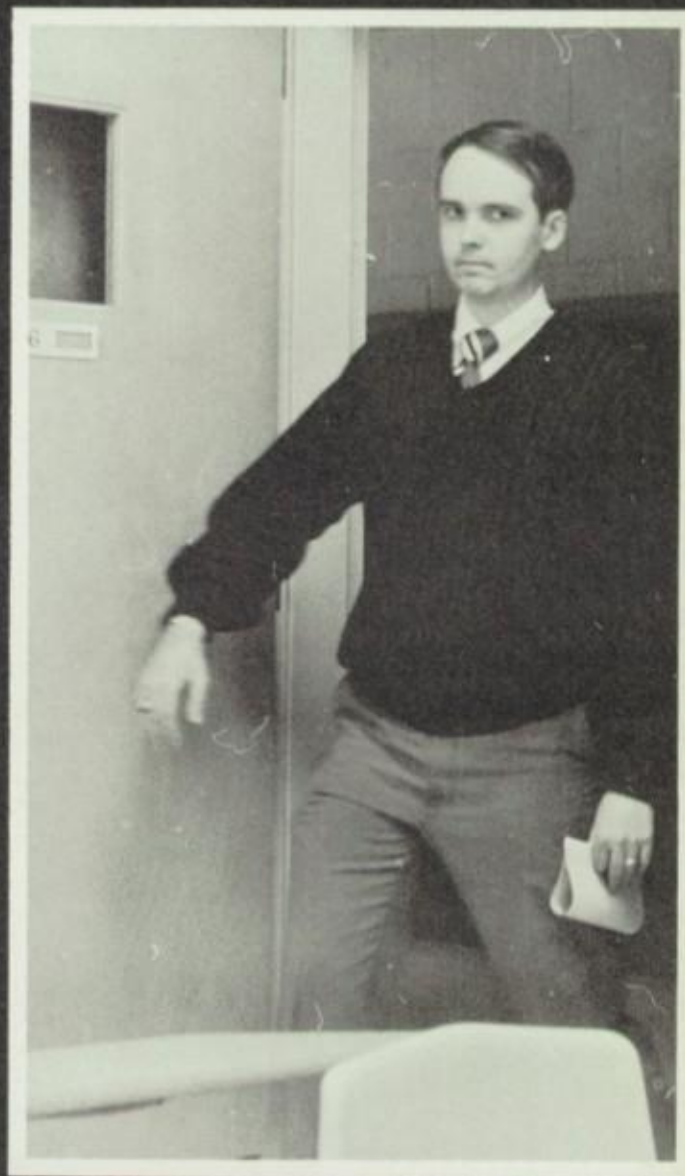

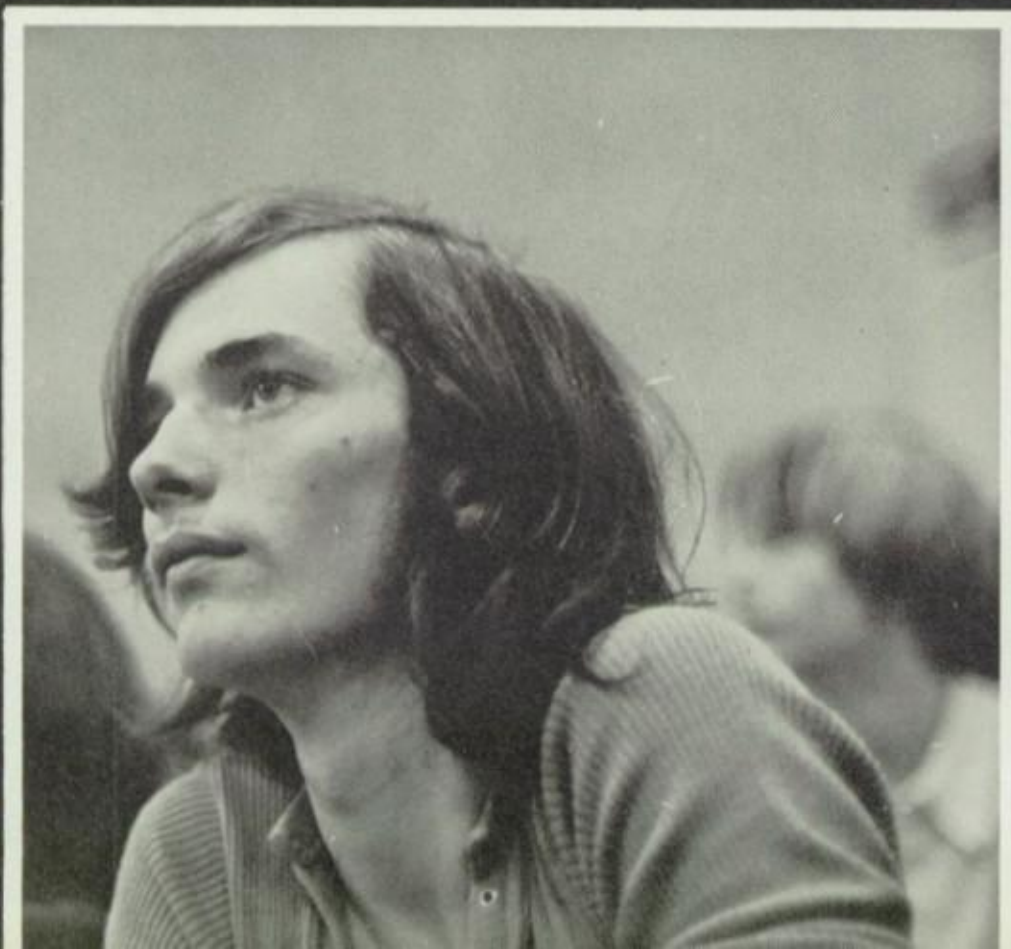

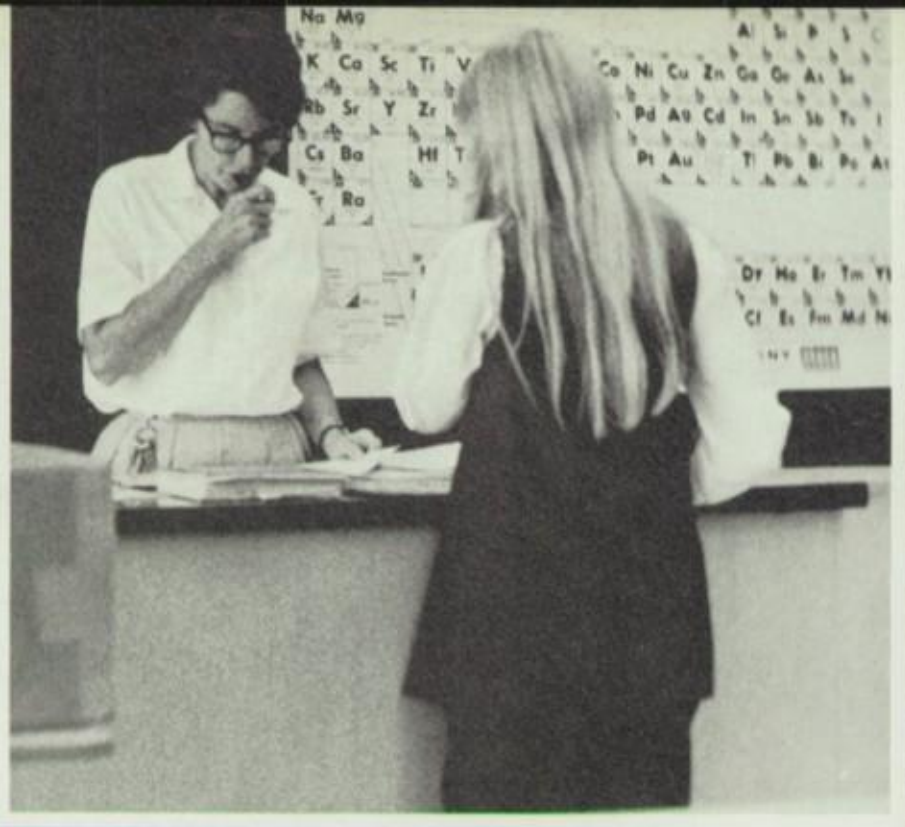

Snow fell . . . the campus was still and the courtyard pretty. Jr. Exchange cleaned it up and it was nice. Macbeth was fun. Romantic poetry led the way to Valentine's day and the away basketball game to Myrtle Beach . . . and Seniors ordered graduation announcements. Then the prom was planned. Decisions were hard to make and conflicts were numerous but it was fun. There was a plea for unity, class concern and togetherness. The 18-year olds anticipated in the upcoming Presidential election and boys received their draft cards. But springtime lightened the mood. The days grew longer but went by more quickly . . . Easter vacation . . . Senior play . . . class day . . . finals.

Graduation . . . a dream finally realized . . . In the stillness, tears fell, and as the Senior Hall was walked for the last time, the smiles were remembered, the good-byes said. To the beach! Celebration!

But it was over . . .

CONGRATULATIONS...

If you are a graduating senior from high school this year, you have:

- traveled around the sun approximately 18 times,
- spent at least 12 years in public school systems,
- or approximately 2160 days (counting off for weekends, holidays, and hookey),
- or 17,280 hours (counting off for recess and tardy),
- or 6480 hours studying (counting homework, field trips, and cramming for tests),
- which is approximately one fourth of your entire waking life,
- which is approximately 2154 days, or 23,616 hours, or 85,017,600 seconds longer than it took God to create this earth...

SO GO SENIORS... and create your own world!

Senior statistics reflect

Quiet ways, timid giggles, and solid dependability, all add up to TREVA SMITH. Her gentle ways and cooperative spirit have endeared her to us all. She excels in everything she attempts and never refuses to help. Treva is a very reliable person whom Ragsdale will always love.

There are not many stones that RANDY SECHREST has left unturned as he has collected many honors at Ragsdale. Football, basketball, and wrestling are Randy's specialties but he excels also in academic ability. Amusing and fun-to-be-with describe this person who is truly himself, never pretentious. Randy and his Jeep will travel far down the road of life.

It must be nice to have everything! LINDA CHILDRESS is one who makes school fun because she promotes school happiness. Her gift of genuine friendship shows why she is so well-liked by her fellow students. Her abundance of energy carries her through her actions as cheerleader, Editor of the ECHO, and member of Civinettes and Monogram Club. In every phase of school activity Linda is truly an outstanding young lady.

"Making the sun shine when it's raining" is ANN BAKER. Being crowned Ragsdale's 1971 Homecoming Queen or cheering in the rain before crowds at a game, Ann is the same — pretty, calm, and collected. There will always be a vivid memory of her days at RHS.

BILL SAUNDERS is truly one of a kind. He leads his classmates as Senior Class President. Whether on the basketball court, the football field, or in the classroom, Bill excels as surely he will beyond the halls of Ragsdale.

All you've got to do is call...

Carole King — you've got a friend
Ode '70 — Records

time, well, it's almost over and I don't know whether to be happy or sad. This year has meant so very much to me and that's because of friends like you.

You are a very special person, Tim. Now can anybody be so absolutely smart and yet so nice and easy to get along with?

I have loved every moment of knowing you.

We've shared many things that you and because of this, our friendship has grown. I hope that it will continue to grow. I know that I will always cherish it. Tim, don't ever doubt the goodness of your motives - I know they're good,

and so does all of your friends, and that's what counts! Just be happy, OK? You've got so much to be happy for. Have a great summer. I'll come see you some weekend at Governor's school. (By the way, congratulations! You deserve all of the many honors you have.) And please write.

Much love and happiness

your,

Love

Susan

Gibi,

I thought that I would sign here besides Susan's

so you might remember some of the things that happened to us. It seems like every time I saw you it was with her. But anyway, it was nice getting to know

you and I'm sure I will see you next year.

Try to remember everything that happens so you can tell me when you see me.

Your friend,

Jon Wapkins

Gini,
 This year has been something else, especially French. All the times I was trying to read and a mass of hair fell from who knows where on my book are not forgotten - so Beware!
 Really, it's been a lot of fun.
 Stay sweet! Happiness & love always -
 Mary

Gini,
 It's been a long and hard year, but it's been loads of fun. History certainly wouldn't have been the same without you. With the attitude that you have toward life I'm sure that you are bound to be a big success at anything that you go at. Have a great summer and I'll see you next year! Your friend,
 Freida

 I have come to know you and call you a friend. Now I hope you realize Kagade is a lot better than Humay. A girl you all the luck and love
 in the world. So it's mine!

Gini,
 Congratulations!
 I know I will be
 seeing you next year.
 I hope you will be a #1 wrestling fan.
 (Phooey on Smith)
 Enjoy your summer,
 because next year
 could be tough.
 Left handers ain't lousy either. We've had a lot of fun, so
 "Thanks" an 'bye.

It's been fun being a lab partner with you in Chemistry even if we did almost blow the school up. I'm real glad I got to know such a wonderful girl like you, you're very smart and talented. Best of luck in everything you do, and have a real nice summer.

You have meant a lot to me with your bubbling personality
 and always-ready smile.
 I admire you for this,
 and I hope I shall always be able to call you "friend" - It is a short, but meaningful word. I have a small poem that I like
 for you to have:

My soul is calm

The sunlight of my heart

Floods, formed with its light

My joy overflows the brim

1891

all over spreads others

... they smile.

God bless you.

Diri, it's very hard for me to sign
this annual because I have signed so many I have nearly run out of things to 'put down'. But in your annual I want write something meaningful and not just 'put down' something. You may not completely understand this but here goes; This year, many things happened to me, bad and good things. I am happy to say that you were the best of the good things. You're a cool person who is dear to me and probably to everyone else here at Ragdale. It doesn't seem possible that one person can have so many great talents but you do and you're a very lucky person.
Remember me when you see this.
I wish you only the good things
in this short lifetime of ours.

Gini,
 This year has really been terrific
 but I'm glad it's over.
 Hope you have a terrific summer.
 and I'll see y'a next year.

Gini, you're too perfect... gotta work on that... that and M.C. Don't change + you'll have everything comin' up roses. Leigh

Gini,
 It's truly been my pleasure knowing you this year. Your personality has brightened my dulldest days. You will always be a success at whatever you attempt. I hope the future holds for you the answer to your every wish!

Gini,
 Wow you really freaked my mind out when I saw you sitting at study hall

Gini,
 I hope you can meet the requirements of Secretary
 next year.
 See ya!

Virginia,

at the start of the year I didn't even know you. Now we've been married four times, where do we go from there? I hope you stay as pretty and smart and nice as you are now. Hope you have a great summer and maybe I'll see you sometime then. Frank C.

Oh yeah! We've been married 4 times so you owe me 4 wedding nights.

Hello, Gini,

We've got our work cut out for us next year. Let's make it a good one!

Best wishes for the summer.

Love,
Marshall

Hi,
I really am glad to hear this year. You really added alot to the class. It also admire the way you stand up for what you think is right. Be good & have a great summer taking. Had ideas you, du, Valerie

gini,
well it's really been a short and struggling year. it's gone by too fast with not enough time to say hello to all my friends, including you. i'm glad you got to date someone from Pagsdale. don't worry, it'll take a while to have them waiting at your door begging you to come out! Best of luck to an outstanding and beautiful person!

same as always,
chris S.

I have our friend this enjoyed very much a very thing you are - kind and sweet

Gene,

Our junior year is here
passed and I haven't learned to write yet. I hope that we can have some classes together next year. We really missed
up Mr. ~~Thane~~ Thane
together. I wish you all the luck possible
to a person of your character. Best wishes.

Hi on you!

Gene, you are the sweetest girl I have ever known. I mean that. You always seem to have a smile on your face and a glittering twinkle in your eye—
you are what every girl wishes to be: intelligent, pretty, witty, kind, happy, sensitive. Those are the qualities I see in you and those are the qualities which should carry you a long way through this troubled world of ours. And if I know you, you will carry others
right along with you.

I'm glad you came to the halls of Hagabale. We would have missed a lot without you.

Love ya! Duncan

Gene,

It sure is great
now that the elections
and school is over with. I'm greatly enjoyed getting to know you and I'm excited about being on the Student Congress with you. I'm sure we'll accomplish much and we'll grow to be even better friends.

Have a good summer,
lots of love,
Duncan

Dini,

You coming back to Ragsdale has really been great. You are a great person and have been good for Ragsdale in many ways. I love and admire you much and hope we never lose our understanding and friendship. I feel as though I now know you better than before but I also feel as though there is much more to know. You have a very bright personality and brighten up mine and other people's days many times. I hope I do the same for yours. You're also a bright scholar and I'm sure you'll go far with it in high school, college, and life. I hope we again have at least one class together next year and keep in contact more next year than this one. Please stay in reach this summer and Remember God loves you.

Dini - I am very glad that you came back this year - I just wish that I had all the qualities that you have - you just came back & now you're everything! We are no one of the same beats - but I am just about used to it now. Things just have to get better? So if we both hope & pray - we'll get the best of the bunch - I can't say any more - the rest is all memories - Always -

Love Always,

Dawn Allred

I've been thinking about you a lot lately and I hope you made too. You always seem to cheer me up when I'm low. I appreciate that. I hope to see you at the aged summer camp. Love, Dini as a friend you are one of my best. I cherish our friendship as one of my most precious possessions. Keep that fantastic smile and unmatched attitude.

Love,
Jeff Martin

(Dini)

I just want to thank you for being my friend. Everything is a lot happier and more fun when you're around. I guess we've been through pretty much this year but I've really had some great times and I hope you made too. You always seem to cheer me up when I'm low. I appreciate that. I hope to see you at the aged summer camp. Love, Dini
